

Conversation Starter: At a Sporting Event

Help kids learn to budget in the real world, starting with their next family outing. Give them a set amount to spend, then explain that if they want to buy a hat, they may not have enough money to buy a snack, too, so they need to prioritize their spending and only pick the things they most want.

At a Sporting Event

Give your kid a set amount to spend. Explain that if they want to buy a hat, they may not have enough money to buy a snack, too, so they need to prioritize their spending and only pick the things they want most.

Keep going, you're doing great!

Next Skill