

Conversation Starter: Setting a Savings Goal.

It can be hard to know when to spend and when to save. Here's an exercise that can help.

Setting a savings goal:

Pick something that everyone in the family or classroom has been wanting, and have each person help work toward achieving that goal. Keep track of your progress, and help kids prioritize their saving for this and other things.

Keep going, you're doing great!

Next Skill